

Tuesday Evening, June 8, 1883.

HOME RULE was defeated in the course of Commons last night by thirty-four.

The Democratic Delegate Elections will take place next Saturday. It becomes the Democrats of every district to send their best men as delegates—men whose honesty of purpose and sound decision will insure proper deliberation and an unexceptionable ticket. A good result in the race is an advantage not to be thrown away.

The demagogue of the generation, the Republican politician who parades himself as the "friend of labor"! Such a check would be too dense for belief if it were not for the known fact that the Republican party is on its last legs; without an issue, and without character to maintain one if it had.

SECRETARY MANNING on the 20th of May placed his resignation in the hands of the President, but the latter asked him to defer it until sufficient rest could be had to test the result of his health.

The Republican governor of Ohio, Mr. Bell, is turning out every Democrat to his heel. He is for "civil service," only where Democrats have power to appoint. And yet, Forkner's followers would have the world believe that he is a shining light in all that is moral and honest!

The State Republican Convention will be held at Harrisburg June 30th. Quay's slate must go through, but its election by the people will prove a very different thing.

GEN. GEORGE J. STANNARD, of Vermont, died in Washington on Tuesday. The General and his brigade won undying laurels for stubborn gallantry in resistance to Pickett's charge at Gettysburg. He made several visits to that place after the battle, the last in October, when Hancock also last viewed the field of his fame.

Mr. Edmunds has introduced in the Senate a bill to give Mrs. Stannard a pension of $100 a month.

When Grand Master Powderly was asked if the report of Mr. Blaine had been true he replied: "No; in heaven's name there have been enough bad things said about us without that. Let us rest them."

The present labor troubles are the product of the principles made to the laboring people by the Republican party.

The Democratic administration had no objection to the bill, but the trouble is not the result of anything it has done. They are the result of the Democratic majority in Congress, although practically results have not directly promoted jobs and corruption of the Republican majority in New York.

When Grand Master Powderly was asked if the report of Mr. Blaine was true he replied: "No; in heaven's name there have been enough bad things said about us without that. Let us rest them."

The present labor troubles are the product of the principles made to the laboring people by the Republican party.

The Democratic administration had no objection to the bill, but the trouble is not the result of anything it has done. They are the result of the Democratic majority in Congress, although practically results have not directly promoted jobs and corruption of the Republican majority in New York.

Mr. JOHN KELLY died in New York on Tuesday, after a long sickness, in his 65th year of his age. He started in life as a graver and soapstone cutter, and made money at the business. He subsequently became Alderman, Comptroller of the city, and member of Congress, and acquired his greatest distinction as the leader of the Tammany Hall Democracy.

HON. DAVID L. HAWKINS, of Missouri, has been nominated for Assistant Secretary of the Interior, to succeed Mr. Jencks.

GOVERNOR PATTERSON gave a state dinner on Thursday, the company including Speaker Carlisle, Gen. Simon Cameron, Secretary of the Supreme Court, Secretary Stenger, Attorney General Cassidy, B. F. Myers, Wm. M. Singly, Rev. Everett, and a few others.

SENATOR KENNA accepts the Chairmanship of the Democratic Congressional Committee. Good!

It is reported that the Senate will add at least $300,000 to the already huge River and Harbor bill, or frame a new one.

NEW YORK was surprised by a streetcar tie-up on Saturday morning, but made happy on Sunday by the ears running again. There was no compensation, and why it all came about, and so quickly, the newspapers do not tell.

The Secretary of the Navy says that the vessels of the North Atlantic squadron have issued orders for several days to stop for sea. They will report for further orders at Portland, Maine. They will visit the fisheries under instructions from the department, and, it is hoped, will help to rather than increase the existing antagonisms.

The Secretary conferred with Admiral Jones upon the subject when in New York recently.

This material in the field is plenty and good, and there would no excuse for any mistake by the Convention next Monday. Every delegate should feel this responsibility resting upon him.

The United States Senate on Friday passed the Chinese indemnity bill by a vote of 30 to 10.

The American Club of Philadelphia voted by 90 to 5, and the Young Men's Democratic Association by 79 to 15, to indefinitely postpone the resolutions declaring that any Democrat who did not support the Morrison tariff bill was redundant to duty.

The sentiment in favor of Hon. Charles B. Roberts for Governor of Indiana is steadily and surely growing.

"He is honest; he is capable; he is faithful to the constitution; he fills every requirement of the law!" is what the New York Star says of Hon. Charles F. Black, and every word is true to the letter.

BENIMAN'S idea in regard to secession is that it is one of the most serious dangers of the time, and he is determined to be in readiness for it by now and more stringent laws in regard to public meetings, and the movements of suspected elements among the population.

CONVENTION was held last Friday, where Stephen W. Dorn says: "The old adage isn't worth talking about. He is the flickering spark in the smouldering ashes of rebellion and secession."

Mr. BOGART, late city editor of the New York Star, has been appointed Managing Editor of the Philadelphia Times. He is one of the ablest journalists in the country.

A PARTY of Philadelphians numbering nearly 1,000 visited the tomb of Gen. McClellan, in Riverton Cemetery, Trenton, N. J., on Sunday week, and the geyser mound where the body lies was literally covered with flowers and elaborate floral designs. The affair was under the direction of Robert Patterson Post of that city, but a number of other organizations of the city joined in pilgrimage and took part in the ceremonies.

This Evening Herald suggests that ex-Governor Hoyt ought to be the coming Republican candidate for United States Senator. He would be a good deal more of a credit to the party than the man who will get there.

A passenger train plunged through a bridge into the Susquehanna river, South Carolina, yesterday, and six passengers were killed.

HENRY WARD BREWER, instead of dying as reported, has planned to deliver forty lectures during his European tour.

The Republican concession in Maryland is not the most favorable; so far, indeed, as to cause some among the most astute that it will not stand the test in court. The Democrats will conclusively prove upon the highest judicial authority, that the New York Times, Republican, says:

"Should it succeed and the court give it sanction, Ohio would seat a full Democratic delegation in the Fifteenth Congress. The point is, that the right of secession has occurred in the mind of Senator Sherman, who opposed the reappointment bill, and in a letter to Senator Conrad raised the point that the Times would be extremely discreditable to have the Republic of Ohio cast by a single Democratic delegation. But the point at issue is, that the right to secede and to appeal to the true partisan fashion, they will have no right to do so, and the right of the fruits should not be to the bidding."

Most SENTENCED.— Herr Johann Most, the anarchist, was on Wednesday sentenced to the penitentiary for one year and fined $300. His associate, Braunschweig, got nine months in the penitentiary, and was fined $250. Schenck was sent to the penitentiary for nine months, but not fined. Recorder Smith in sentencing Most expressed deep regret that the law did not permit him to impose a heavier sentence. His crimes, however, deserved the punishment awarded to capital offenses. He also told him he was the greatest scoundrel he had ever seen at that bar, Braunschweig, the recorder said, was almost equally guilty, Schenck, he thought, was a dupe of his companion, but he deserved punishment to warn him and others against following the teachings of such as Most. Neither of the prisoners attempted to speak a word in court. If such evens, or moustaches, will show no regard for law, they must be made to feel its force. Next!

The following is from Harper's Weekly, high Republican authority:

"We have the right to demand that those who voted to send the election of Cleveland, in opposition to the will of the people, be held responsible for the loss of the Republic."

Mr. Edmunds has introduced in the Senate a bill to give Mrs. Stannard a pension of $100 a month.

When Grand Master Powderly was asked if the report of Mr. Blaine was true he replied: "No; in heaven's name there have been enough bad things said about us without that. Let us rest them."

The following is from Harper's Weekly, high Republican authority:

"We have the right to demand that those who voted to send the election of Cleveland, in opposition to the will of the people, be held responsible for the loss of the Republic."

Mr. Edmunds has introduced in the Senate a bill to give Mrs. Stannard a pension of $100 a month.

When Grand Master Powderly was asked if the report of Mr. Blaine was true he replied: "No; in heaven's name there have been enough bad things said about us without that. Let us rest them."

The following is from Harper's Weekly, high Republican authority:

"We have the right to demand that those who voted to send the election of Cleveland, in opposition to the will of the people, be held responsible for the loss of the Republic."

Mr. Edmunds has introduced in the Senate a bill to give Mrs. Stannard a pension of $100 a month.

When Grand Master Powderly was asked if the report of Mr. Blaine was true he replied: "No; in heaven's name there have been enough bad things said about us without that. Let us rest them."

The following is from Harper's Weekly, high Republican authority:

"We have the right to demand that those who voted to send the election of Cleveland, in opposition to the will of the people, be held responsible for the loss of the Republic."

Mr. Edmunds has introduced in the Senate a bill to give Mrs. Stannard a pension of $100 a month.

When Grand Master Powderly was asked if the report of Mr. Blaine was true he replied: "No; in heaven's name there have been enough bad things said about us without that. Let us rest them."

The following is from Harper's Weekly, high Republican authority:

"We have the right to demand that those who voted to send the election of Cleveland, in opposition to the will of the people, be held responsible for the loss of the Republic."

Mr. Edmunds has introduced in the Senate a bill to give Mrs. Stannard a pension of $100 a month.

When Grand Master Powderly was asked if the report of Mr. Blaine was true he replied: "No; in heaven's name there have been enough bad things said about us without that. Let us rest them."

The following is from Harper's Weekly, high Republican authority:

"We have the right to demand that those who voted to send the election of Cleveland, in opposition to the will of the people, be held responsible for the loss of the Republic."

Mr. Edmunds has introduced in the Senate a bill to give Mrs. Stannard a pension of $100 a month.

When Grand Master Powderly was asked if the report of Mr. Blaine was true he replied: "No; in heaven's name there have been enough bad things said about us without that. Let us rest them."

The following is from Harper's Weekly, high Republican authority:

"We have the right to demand that those who voted to send the election of Cleveland, in opposition to the will of the people, be held responsible for the loss of the Republic."

THE WEDDING.

President Cleveland and Miss Folsom married at the White House.

President Cleveland was married on Wednesday evening at the White House, Rev. Dr. Sundstrand officiated, and the President's brother, Rev. W. N. Cleveland, pronounced the benediction. Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland left in the evening for Deer Park, Md., to remain a week.

The ceremony took place in the Blue Parlor, in the presence of Mrs. Folsom, the bride's mother, Rev. W. N. Cleveland, Mrs. Folsom, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, of Seneca Falls, Mrs. Gardner and daughter, of Detroit, Mrs. McLean, of Buffalo, Mrs. Hoyt, Miss Folsom, of New York, and Mr. W. S. Bissell, of Buffalo, N. Y., the President's law partner, representing the President's and the bride's immediate families, and Secretary Bayard, Secretary and Mrs. Manning, Secretary and Mrs. Endicott, Secretary and Mrs. Vilas, Secretary and Mrs. Larned, and Colonel and Mrs. Lamont.

The President's household furniture was taken to the White House.

Twenty-two maid-servants were held at Chicago, May 27—10 for under and 12 for over.

THE WORLD IN BRIEF.

The United States has reduced nearly imprisonments in Michigan.

A Boston paper finds that the May strike has had the effect of suspending all building in the city.

The Jaycees, which is a youth organization, has been formed in Michigan.

The Jaycees

have been formed

in Michigan.

The Jaycees

have been formed

in

Michigan.

The Jaycees

have been formed

in

Michigan.

The Jaycees

have been formed

in

Michigan.

The Jaycees

have been formed

in

Michigan.

The Jaycees

have been formed

in

Michigan.

The Jaycees

have been formed

in

Michigan.

The Jaycees

have been formed

in

Michigan.

The Jaycees

have been formed

in Michigan.

The Jaycees

have been formed

in</

